Administrative Care Coordinator

A Note From Annie

Hi, I'm the Care Coordinator here at DePriest Center.

I joined this therapy center because I truly care about people and want to make a lasting difference in their lives. It's important to me to serve others with kindness, empathy, and good faith. This work isn't just a job to me – it's something I feel genuinely led to do, and I feel grateful every day to be part of a place that's all about helping others feel safe, loved, grow, and heal.

Outside of work, I love being outdoors—especially in the summer—spending time with my husband, Noah, and our pets, and trying out new recipes in the kitchen. I'm so glad you're here, and I look forward to being part of your journey!

"Seek the Kingdom of God above all else and live righteously, and he will give you everything you need." – Matthew 6:33"
